The program for the celebration of Kentucky day, June 15, has been arranged by Secretary R. E. Hughes, of the State commission. It is expected that at least 3,000 Kentuckians will attend the ceremonies, as all the railroads from the State will run special excursions. The annual meeting of the Kentucky Press Association will be held at that time, and a special train with 300 members of the organization will come to the exposition and be the special guests of the Kentucky commission. The program is as follows:

NARROW ESCAPE.—Mrs. Beckham, wife of the Governor, and Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Hill, who were driving with her, narrowly escaped injury in a collision of carriages and a street car at the corner of Main and Ann streets, at Frankfort, Saturday afternoon. The horses attached to the Governor's carriage became frightened and backed the vehicle upon the sidewalk, and it was about to be overturned when bystanders caught the horses and held them until the occupants alighted. The accident occurred near the station of the street railway, and was due to the sudden backing of a car standing in front of the station. Another vehicle was between the Governor's carriage and the car, and its negro driver in trying to get away from the car, backed into the carriage.

"D—D LITERARY CHAPS."—When J. P. Proctor, of Kentucky, the Civil Service Commissioner, died recently in Washington Mr. Roosevelt said: "If John Fox, Jr., would take the place, I would send his appointment to the Senate within thirty minutes. I have a weakness for these d—d literary chaps, as they are called, and I want to get more of them into the public service."

A FAT FEE.—The Hon. John G. Carlisle was awarded judgment for $25,000 against Leon Barnes in New York for counsel fees.

The deceased is the widow of the late B. L. Knapp, and is survived by three children—Mrs. Wm. Myall, of this city; Mrs. George Jasper, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; and Edward Knapp, of Cincinnati. Mrs. Knapp was a life-long and faithful member of the Christian Church, and by her sweet and sunny disposition was loved by all, especially by those who knew her best. It can truly be said that a good woman has gone to her just reward. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon, at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Wm. Myall, services being conducted by Elder Carey Morgan and burial at Paris cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Dr. J. T. Vansant, Jonas Myall, J. T. Quisenberry, J. T. Martin, Chas. Stephens, W. S. Ray.
